If you believe a student is in immediate danger or may harm others, please call 911.

The College | Monroe Hall

Association Deans

When in doubt, refer students to their Association Dean. Students can call 434-924-3351 to make an appointment. If they do not know the name of their dean, the staff will assist them when they call to make an appointment (434-924-3351).

If you are concerned about a student who has not been submitting work or attending class, you may contact their Association Dean. There are several ways to find out the name of a student's Association Dean:

- Check the "General Info" tab in SIS. Scroll down a bit and look for Student Groups. Not everyone has this access so if you do not see the name of the Association Dean listed, keep reading.
- If you are an advisor (non-major, major or graduate student), you can find the name of the student's Dean in our eAdvising system. Click on Search (on the left); uncheck "Only show my advisees"; enter the student's name or computing ID and then click on "Filter".
- You can ask the staff in your department to look up in the information in SIS.
- You can call the Monroe Hall staff at 434-924-3351 to find the information.
- If you cannot find the name of a student's Association Dean (or if it is easier for you), email the student's full legal name and your concern to askthecollege@virginia.edu. Your message will be forwarded to the correct Association Dean.
- You can email Rachel Most (rm5f@virginia.edu) for assistance.
